Rec'd aug 17-1938

"Let no mean hope, your souls enslave;
Be independent, generous, brave;
Your fathers such example gave,
And such revere."

DEDICATED TO THE

MEMORY OF

THE FRONTIERS OF TENNESSEE

AND TO A

DESCENDANT OF THOSE FRONTIERS

—MY MOTHER.

Author's Note

After six years of careful research conducted by the author, the following pages are presented to you in as complete form as has been possible to compile, through authentic sources.

The early records of the census of East Tennessee territory have been lost or destroyed, also a great many of the court records, real estate transfers, and marriage records, have been misplaced, preventing us from accumulating much valuable information from these sources.

Should there be any omissions, it was due to uncertainties as to the the facts and inability to verify them.

This book shall be a family heritage and be handed down from one generation of kin, to the next. Due to the very limited number of copies printed, it will be impossible to replace.

To the living and future generations: Keep these family names as honorable as your ancestors have kept them for you, and your children will have a heritage unequalled.

The author here acknowledges his gratitude for the many courtesies extended him during the preparation of this record and for the valuable data and assistance coming from ALL sources and particularly from the following: Mrs. Sallie Jane Hutsell, Mrs. Oren Long, Miss Livia Gillenwaters, Mr. Reed Altom, Mrs. O. R. Gillenwaters, Mr. William Hugh Brooks, and, my mother, Mrs. Tennessee (Gillenwaters) Brown.

THE GILLENWATERS FAMILY

THE GILLENWATERS FAMILY

Bulls Gap, Tenn., August 17, 1931.

Mr. William L. Brown,
1983 Howell Mill Road, N. W.
Atlanta, Georgia.

My Dear Sir:-

Yours received and I can give only an outline. The original Gillenwaters came over from England and settled in Maryland. I don't know his given name. He raised a family of six children—five boys and one girl. Two of the boys came to Southwest Virginia. Two came to East Tennessee and one boy remained in Maryland.

Your family came from the brothers settling in East Tennessee. The branch from which my mother came was from the brothers settling in Southwest Virginia. My mother was raised at Fort Blackmore, Scott County, Virginia. Her name was Mary, who died when I was three years old. Her brothers names were: John, David, William, James and Sylvester, all of whom lived and raised families in Scott County, Virginia.

The girl of the original family in Maryland married a Brown and went to Missouri and the family of Browns, composing the Brown Shoe Co., of St. Louis, I am told, are the descendants of the sister who went to Missouri.

Yours,

S. L. PENNINGTON, M. D.

A FEW NOTES

There are several deeds of record at Amherst, Va., from James, Elisha, Joel and Thomas Gillenwaters.

Marriage bond, Joshua Gillenwaters and Salley Layne, daughter of James Layne, dated December 21, 1791.

The census of 1782 to 1785 (date of first Virginia census) shows Ann Gillenwaters head of family with two children and Mary Gillenwaters head of family of seven, both of Amherst County, Va.

"Family Chronicles and Kinship Book" by Bond, refers to Judge Cross marrying a Miss Gillenwaters, a sister of Thomas, of Amherst County, Va., and that she was of Welsh extraction.

Several of the descendants of Thomas, the First, spell Gillenwaters without the "s". Attention is called to the Will of Thomas Gillenwaters in which it is spelled WITH the "s." Believing this definitely settles the correct spelling of the name, we have used the "s" throughout the descendants, with apologies to those who spell the name without the "s."

Since printing page 139 have learned this name was John C. Gillenwaters.

FIRST GENERATION

Thomas Gillenwaters

Date of birth not known. Resided in Amherst County, Va. Died sometime between August 11, 1779 and March 6, 1780, as is verified by his "Last Will and Testament," copy of which is reprinted.

The first census of Virginia, 1782 to 1785, shows Martha, widow of Thomas, had seven in her family and it is supposed six children, herself making the seventh. Only the names of the following children are known: Elijah, Joel and Thomas, Jr.

He served under the rulership of George II and George III, and used the old style Julian Calendar, originated by Julius Caesar.

Last Will and Testament of Thomas Gillenwaters

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN. I, Thomas Gillenwaters, of Amherst County, being in a low condition of health, but in good and perfect memory, do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following, firstly: I give my soul to Almighty God and my body to be buried in such decency as my Executors hereafter shall think proper, as to my worldly estate. After discharging my just debts, I dispose of it in manner and form following, Item. I give to my sons Elijah and Joel my land as follows, a straight line run from the old line where it crosses Duck Bill the upperpart of which, when so divided, is to be equally divided so as the advantage of each may be as equal as possible, Elijah to take his choice and Joel the other part, of that subdivision. I give to Elijah one two year old heifer. I give Joel the first coult my mare Blaze brings, providing he shall stay another year and work and behave in his place as usual. Item. I lend to my beloved wife the remainder of my land and plantation during her natural life and then I give it to my son Thomas. As to the remainder of stock, household furniture, shop tools, and other advantages, I lend them to my wife to raise her children on, by me begotten, during her widowhood; provided she should marry, my desire is that what part of my estate should rest then in her hands should be to the support of my younger children such of them as are incapable of maintaining themselves. Last of all I leave my beloved wife, Martha Gillenwaters and Elijah Gillenwaters Executors to this my last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this Eleventh day of August One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-nine.

SECOND GENERATION

Descendants of Thomas and Martha Gillenwaters

ELIJAH C. GILLENWATERS
The first survey shows on March 10, 1797, land grant of 700 acres on both sides of North Fork of Holston river, and, on July 25, of the same year, 50 acres in Poor Valley. September 29, 1797 he witnessed a legal paper. John Owens gave him power of attorney in 1798.

JOEL GILLENWATERS
See Page ~~128~~. 135.

THOMAS GILLENWATERS, JR.
Located in Spartanburg County, S. C. Was head of family of 3 boys and 3 girls when the census of 1790 was taken. These children might have been brothers and sisters as his mother was evidently dead as he sold the farm, willed to him by his father, in 1791, which he could not become in possession of until after his mother's death. It would be the natural course for him to take his young brothers and sisters. Much speculation by historians as to where Thomas, Jr. located after leaving Spartanburg county. Some think he located in Hawkins County, Tenn. There is nothing we have found to indicate he did. There seems to be some confusion between Junior and Thomas III, son of Joel. It is presumed Junior returned to Amherst County, Va., as there is a deed recorded, October 13, 1804, from John London to Thomas Gillenwaters, conveying 120 acres on the North branches of Porridge Creek. (Now Munday's Mill Creek.)

Author's Note—No effort has been made to trace other than the ancestors and descendants of Joel Gillenwaters in this family record, but, information obtained in the course of my search on other members, which might be of interest, is published.

SECOND GENERATION

Joel Gillenwaters

Son of Thomas and Martha Gillenwaters, of Amherst County, Virginia. Wife's name was Loretta.

Served as soldier in the Revolutionary War, under Captain Graves. Manuscript in the Virginia State Library, Richmond, showing payment made June 11, 1783 for military service.

According to old court records at the court house in Rogersville, Tenn., he was sheriff of Hawkins County, ~~about~~ 1796.-1798. He was ~~probably~~ the first sheriff of Hawkins County. This was back in the days when the office seeks the man, instead of the man seeking the office, as is the case today.

He was a large land owner, in his own right, and old records show many conveyances of land by him.

Record of his doing jury duty in Rogersville, on October 10, 1823.

To Mother

Mother, your going has shown God to me. Hold my hand, Mother, and guide me past the stumbling blocks on my path through life; help me, as you did here on earth, to be a man among men, a friend to humanity, and to live a Christian life, as you lived your life. I miss you, Mother, and yet, I feel your ever presence around me, in all my undertakings, and in the stillness of my deepest thoughts. I am not afraid now, Mother, for I can feel the presence of An Angel—Your presence.
